Special to The Courier.

SCOTSDALE, Nov. 19.—Council, after two attempts to hold meetings this month got together Monday evening, at which time the Frank Thomas case was brought before the council by the presentation of a bill from the Memorial Hospital at Mount Pleasant for $250 and from Dr. S. B. Gray for $511 for professional services rendered. The bills were ordered returned to the senders, since council felt that council did not have anything to do with the patient. Children's Ills
Taken Too Lightly,
Health Head Says

By United Press.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19.—Children's diseases were held up as more serious than parents are inclined to regard them in the weekly health talk of the State Department of Health.

"The old time theory that all children must have them has long since been disproven, while it is not impossible for grown persons to contract any of the so-called diseases of childhood, it is exceptional.

"To be on the safe side keep your children away from contagion and should an epidemic be present consult a doctor on the first unusual symptom."

This was the advice of Dr. William C. Miller, director of the Bureau of Public Health Education, as a precaution and a preventive step to avoid the ravages on disease where it is unnecessary.

Diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles, whooping cough and mumps each presents grave dangers to the young because of the baneful after effects, he declared.

Suicide Impossible, Officers Declare in Sheatsley Mystery

By United Press.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 19.—The suicide theory was practically abandoned in the Sheatsley furnace mystery today. Convinced that Rev. C. V. Sheatsley's wife was murdered and her body stuck in the furnace door of the paragon furnace, police and Prosecutor John N. King continued their investigation.

King was careful to point out that he now believed the solution to the mystery lies outside the pastor's family. Rev. Sheatsley and his four children have furnished acceptable alibis, showing that Mrs. Sheatsley's body was placed in the furnace during their absence, King said.

In abandoning the suicide theory the county prosecutor explained that there was never a trace of insanity in Mrs. Sheatsley's family and that it would have been physically impossible for her to crawl through the 14-inch square of the furnace door and deliberately pull the door shut on herself while the flames played about her body.

Detectives spent the night at Bealey, an exclusive residential and university district looking for clues. They interviewed professors and students of Capital University and neighbors of the Sheatsley family to learn if any strangers had been seen in the vicinity and found everyone completely baffled.

Rev. Sheatsley, who has declared repeatedly since he raked his wife's charred bones from the paragon furnace Monday night that he could not have committed suicide, telephoned John N. King, county prosecutor, at noon today, that he is now convinced Mrs. Sheatsley took her own life.

"I am now convinced that my wife of her own free will crawled into the furnace and burned to death," the pastor said.

His statement will be recorded with other testimony in the case but the investigation is not yet at an end, King said.

CAMPAIGN HALF OVER, RED CROSS
FUND BUT $7,000

Urgent Need for Extension of Efforts in Many Places, Chairman Indicates.

UNIONTOWN HAS $2,338

Up to last night there was only about $7,000 reported to Red Cross headquarters in Uniontown. This is less than one third of the chapter quota, and while it is realized by the Roll Call committee that many districts, chairmen and team captains have made only partial reports, still they wish to call to the attention of every worker engaged in the Roll Call that the campaign is half over with less than half of the quota raised.

Calls continue to come to headquarters every day asking when workers will visit certain districts. This indicates that some sections of the county are not being covered and the Roll Call chairman, Senator Guy W. Brown, says that he does not consider the campaign completed until every adult in the county has been asked to enroll in the Red Cross.

Yesterday a woman went to the chapter office and handed one of the Red Cross workers $10, saying, "Here is $10 I want to give to the Red Cross. I sent for a worker to come after it but she did not come." Some few persons will voluntarily take or send in their enrollment fee, but the majority must be requested to join, and Red Cross officials feel the chapter's quota will be secured if a sufficient number of persons are requested to enroll.

A partial report of the Roll Call in the Uniontown district, announced by C. L. Steiner, the city chairman last night showed the collection $2,338. This is just a little more than half of what the district raised last year. It is not a final report of any of the wards, but two, the First and Sixth, have already exceeded last year's mark. A detailed report of the wards to date follows:

First Ward, Mrs. Roy Fulton, captain, $920.

Second Ward, Mrs. S. Ray Shelby, captain, $248.

Third Ward, Mrs. George W. Hackney, captain, $65.

Fourth Ward, Miss Drue West, captain, $183.25.

Fifth Ward, Mrs. J. Harry Gorley, captain, $190.

Sixth Ward, Miss Martha Hawkins, captain, $310.

Seventh Ward, Mrs. F. C. Pew, captain, $172.50.

Eighth Ward, Mrs. Clarence Wilson, captain, $247.25.

Kiwanians Hear
That Education Will Be Changed

The feature of the program at the Kiwanis Club weekly luncheon today was an address by Harry C. McKown of the school of education, University of Pittsburgh. He brought out five important points to his audience. They were:

First—Take an interest in the school and its affairs.

Second—Support the school morally and financially.

Third—Be open-minded towards progress and experiments in school affairs.

Fourth—After being open-minded to demand results.

Fifth—After demanding results to be reasonable.

Under the second heading, asking moral and financial support, he declared educated children become consumers, creating a greater cycle of business. He predicted some great changes in the next decade or two "that will set us thinking." He said there would be no recitations in the higher grades and silent reading there instead of oral. He also said there would be study of individual differences and measurement of educational gains. He predicted changes in the curriculum as the science of education advances.

The attendance prize was won by John Davis. It was an order for a turkey.

SNOW SWEEPER ON TRIAL RUN JUMPS TRACK, TIES UP WEST PENN TRAFFIC

Traffic on the main line of the West Penn Railways Company was tied up for several hours today when a new snow sweeper, built at the West Side shops, which was being tried out, jumped the tracks on the grade going into Morrell. The car wheels buried themselves in the ash ballast and one end of the sweeper remained over the rails in such fashion that cars could not pass it.

The derailment occurred about 9:30 o'clock. S. J. Witt was operating the sweeper, which is a single truck type. The dipping motion of the car as it went down the grade is believed to have been responsible for it leaving the rails. Neither Mr. Witt nor another barn employee, who was in the car, was hurt.

Transfer of passengers was necessitated throughout the remainder of the morning and part of the afternoon.

Cardinal Logue,
Irish Prelate,
Dies Suddenly

By United Press.

ARMAGH, Ireland, Nov. 19.—Cardinal Logue, primate of Ireland, and one of the outstanding figures of Roman Catholicism, died suddenly at his residence early today.

Word of his death shocked all Ireland, for his efforts to bring about peace and tranquillity in the troubled island had won him the affection of the South and the respect of those who opposed him on religious grounds.

His influence was outspokenly opposed to the republican movement, but favored the Irish Free State. He denounced outrages in the name of liberty and was an influence behind the compromise with the British government out of which the Free State was born.

Physically a small man, with gray hair, Cardinal Logue was vigorous and active up to the time of his death.

President's Commission to Be

SCOPE IS UNRESTRICTED

Will Embrace Study of Laws, Coöperative Marketing, Governmental Bureau, Land Grant Colleges and Other Matters; Plan Early Report.

By DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright, 1924, by The Courier.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The most important political and economic problem of the after-the-war period in American history is at last being tackled from a non-partisan and judicial standpoint without either the pressure of party politics or interference by sectional groups.

A commission of nine selected by the President has been given the widest possible scope for its inquiry. The appointment of the commission is a sequel not only to the failure of the last session of Congress to get together on a farm relief program but to the unreconciled conflict between the Department of Commerce and the Department of Agriculture on the placing of the bureau of markets in one department or the other.

The new commission has been asked particularly to restrict itself in no way but to go into the whole farm problem. It has been told that it can make recommendations with respect to the rearrangement or consolidation of various bureaus having to do with the farm problem. It is not only to inquire into the workings of present laws but to render an opinion on the different proposals pending in the last session of Congress for farm relief and lastly it is to concern itself with ways and means of promoting the study of coöperative marketing.

On the last point it would not be surprising if the commission started a program of study in the land grant colleges so that coöperative marketing would be studied from the scientific side just as business management and finance are studied in preparation for the tasks of the industrial and manufacturing world.

There is no exaggerating the importance of the work of the new commission with respect to pending bills. Pride of authorship, the inner politics of farm organizations and a half dozen other problems have become interwoven with each other to such an extent that it has been difficult for the Administration Continued on Page Seven.

S. S. Workers Dine.

One of the oldest affairs held by the Methodist Episcopal Sunday School at Scottdale was the dinner last evening for the officers and teachers along with the orchestra. Covers were laid for fifty-five. A color scheme of yellow was carried out. The dinner was served by the Young Ladies Bible Class, under the supervision of Mrs. M. A. Albert. Rev. Judson Jeffers, Robert Baskell led the singing. Prof. Charles Maxwell of Greensburg was the principal speaker, telling how the public school began in Pennsylvania, of the rapid strides made by it, of the Sunday schools in the State, how much better teachers were being chosen for the public schools and the care with which they were chosen, but how "lax we are" in choosing the Sunday school teacher. The department heads then made talks, telling of their departments. That of Mrs. H. C. Fox showed the greatest gain. Talks were given by Mrs. Fox, Miss Jessie Brown, Mrs. Albert Hoop, Mrs. J. P. Davis, Miss Blanche Lowry and J. W. Beallink. D. P. Davis is superintendent of the Sunday school. A meeting of the department superintendents and the teachers was held later, at which time plans for an increase in attendance of 25 per cent until the first of the year was planned.

Monday Musical Club.

The Monday Musical Club met on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. J. M. Zimmerman at Scottdale, with Mrs. Zimmerman and Miss Lida Baskell the hostesses. The subject for the evening was Indian music. Mrs. Walter Houseman gave a talk on this. Others who took part on the program were Mrs. Wendell Mommyer, Miss Helen Laughlin, Miss Margaret Krichbaum, Mrs. C. M. Stone and Mrs. G. P. Kelly. A social hour, with refreshments, followed the program. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Louis Shradlow of Connelville. The Mozart Club of Connelville will appear in a return engagement at Scottdale on December 9.

A very enjoyable surprise party was given last evening by members of the S. B. A. Lodge of Scottdale at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abel Peterson in Greenwood, observing the birthday anniversary of Mr. Peterson and Edward Pearson of Scottdale. Each was the recipient of a pair of gold cuff links. Music and games were the diversions of the evening. At 10:30 o'clock a delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. Pearson. About forty guests, including Mr. Peterson's mother, Mrs. Matilda Peterson of McKeesport, were present.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE
People Notice It. Drive Them Off with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights. Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating. No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, heavy, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face. Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c and 50c.

ABOUT FRENCH PASTRY

To the average cook French pastry is a sealed book, as the most of such dainties are prepared from puff paste which is a morning's work to prepare; however, most attractive pastry fruits may be made at home with just the ordinary rich pastry with which the apple pie is made.

Vanilles.—Cut pastry into squares (three-inch), wet the middle and fold each corner over a blanched almond. In the center place a small star of pastry, bake in a hot oven. When cool pipe a bit of whipped cream on each corner and top with a cube of bright jelly.

Pastry Roses.—These may be used filled with any desired sweet, or as decoration for various tarts or pastries. Cut thinly rolled pastry into four inch squares, fold in halves then fold again making a two-inch square, bring the points together and pinch firmly, turn over and push nearly through in opposite directions. Roll the points back, wet the back and place where wished. Sprinkle with powdered sugar before serving.

Peach Tart.—Bake shallow scalloped oval cases of pastry; spread a thin layer of lemon jelly over the bottom of each and fill with thin overlapping slices of drained preserved peaches. Decorate with cream or frosting around the edges, sprinkle with coconut and minced pistachio nuts.

Love Knots.—Cut three-fourths-inch wide strips of thinly rolled-out pastry, and from them fashion bow knots four inches long. Brush with egg, sprinkle with finely chopped nuts and bake. When cooled place a cherry or preserved berry in each end of the bow and a whirl of whipped cream in the center.

Napoleons.—Cut oblongs of similar size from rolled-out pastry, bake in a good oven and put together in layers of four with lemon sauce, or cream filling between. Cover the tops with coffee or mocha frosting, groove in a pattern with the end of a spoon and sprinkle with a narrow row of minced pistachio nuts at each end. Pipe on a little whipped cream just before serving.

MARCONI PERFECTS "BEAM" SYSTEM OF RADIO SIGNALING

Messages Sent Regularly Between English and Australian Stations.

THEY TRAVEL IN LINE

Rapid Development of Wireless for Commercial Purposes Seen as Result of End of 20 Years of Experiments; Contracts With Britain.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—William Marconi, inventor of wireless, has perfected his "beam" system of radio transmission to the point where messages have been sent regularly between England and Australia, says the New York World.

Scientists are enthusiastically declaring this ends the experimental stage of "beam" transmission and forecasts rapid development in wireless in the immediate future. By the "beam" system the radio waves are sent out in only one direction and in a limited beam.

Signor Marconi has been conducting experiments along this line for nearly 30 years. Marconi told the World correspondent the adoption of his new system means greatly reduced radio rates and greater precision in transmission.

He said contracts would be entered into at once with the British government for the provision of beam stations to link up the far away dominions with England. He also expects to make rapid progress in circles of the globe with these stations.
"AM the results," he declared
"many of which greatly exceeded my expectations, convince me that by means of the beam system economical and efficient low power stations can be established which will maintain direct, high speed services with the most distant parts of the world during a considerable number of fixed hours daily.

"I am further of the opinion that by means of comparatively small stations, which the beam system permits a far greater number of words each twenty-four hours can be transmitted between England and her distant dominions than would be possible by means of the previously planned powerful and expensive stations.

"As distant stations situated only within a certain angle or sector of the beam are enabled to receive, this condition brings about comparative privacy or secrecy of communications, unobtainable with any other system of radio communication, and this should prove of the greatest value in time of war.

"Besides increasing the number of stations it will be possible to reduce the possibility of mutual interference between them. The comparative economy in capital cost of beam stations, the small amount of electrical power which they need together with the capability of working at very high speeds, should make it possible to bring about substantial reduction in rates."

CONGRESS LEADERS OPPOSED TO EXTRA SESSION IN MARCH

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Republican leaders in Congress—rallying to President Coolidge—have decided on a program which may mean postponement of tax reduction, farm reform and railroad legislation until next fall.

They are with the President against an extra session and believe it will be impossible to work out any vital legislative reforms at the contingent short session in December.

Senator Curtis, leading Republican chief of the upper house, announced that he and all other Administration Republicans intend to back the President in his proposal that there shall be no Congress after March, at least until next September.

As far as tax reduction goes Curtis expresses the intent of the Administration when he says that none can be accomplished until the end of the fiscal year, June 30, 1925, when balances of the treasury department are revealed.

In matters of farm relief he points out that 26 bills were made law in sessions of the 67th Congress and that none of them apparently did the warmer as much good as had been hoped.

PROBLEM OF FARM RELIEF SUBJECT OF THOROUGH INQUIRY

in back wholeheartedly any one bill. Nor has it been practical to obtain the amalgamation of several proposals into one. Nothing was more disappointing to the members of the Senate and House from agricultural states in the last session than the failure to pass any bill of importance with respect to farm relief. Congress had the desire but lacked the teamwork and the practical knowledge. The congressional committees were so torn by the conflicting proposals that virtually nothing was accomplished.

President Coolidge wanted to put the agricultural commission to work immediately after Congress adjourned last spring but was advised to wait till after the autumn election so the issue could be taken out of political temporarily at least. Now the commission meets tomorrow in a favorable atmosphere. It need not think of what effect its proposals will have on any political party. Indeed the chances are that if it can bring out a unanimous report the Democrats from agricultural states will support it as strongly as the Republicans.

Another advantage which the commission enjoys is that no crisis or acute situation is immediately ahead. The condition of agriculture while far from what must ultimately be desired is stable. It is to be expected for any length of time is nevertheless better than it was a year or two ago. Usually if there is a crisis in any particular industry the proposals for relief are so extreme in character and the judgments of the proponents so warped by acute feeling that a calm consideration of the merits of any suggestion is difficult.

The new commission hopes to get its report ready for the winter session of Congress. That is optimistic. There are many reasons why action at the coming session would be desirable and even easy to obtain should there be a unanimous report from the commission. But most controlling will be the knowledge that the farm areas of the United States will be demanding a special session after March 1 to get something done on the committee's recommendations. The commission has all the cooperation it needs from government agencies and farm organizations and might surprise everybody by having a report ready in February. There is a meeting of the National Council for Cooperative Marketing here in January whose discussions probably will be very helpful to the commission.

SOCIETY DAZED AT RHINELANDER ELOPEMENT.

A bombshell was thrown into the aristocratic ranks of the blue bloods of New York and Newport by the announcement that Leonard Kip Rhinelander, twenty-two-year-old son of one of America's oldest and richest families, had eloped in New York City with Alice Beatrice Jones, daughter of a former black driver. The girl bitterly denied statements that she is a negro. Her father is a West Indian.

Cokers Get Hard Workout in View of Holiday Thursday; Meet Braddock on Saturday

Locals Will Dispose of Weekend Game, Then Prepare for Dunbar Township.

TEAM OUT FOR VICTORY

The High School grid squad will be given a hard workout this afternoon as tomorrow the entire outfit will go to Waynesburg to see the title clash between the Cokers and Allegheny College for the Class B championship.

The boys are being taken to the game by Holiday members, as part of an endeavor to show the team the community is behind it and in recognition of the continuous good service which has been done throughout the season despite the odds against them.

On Friday the aggregation will be out on the field for a hustling game of football and then comes Braddock on Saturday. The day promises to be a good one for football. The Cokers have not had a real snappy day for a game yet and if the cold winds are blowing, it may put some pep into the aggregation. Because of the special efforts being made by the observing section for Thanksgiving, some of which is promised for Saturday, another good crowd is anticipated.

Then begins the work for the final game. It will be played on Thanksgiving with Dunbar Township.

Once that clash was a mid-week affair but this season the visitors appear to have a chance. Psychology is expected to play a big part in the game. Connellsville boys are being told that they cannot lose that game and it is being impressed on them that over-confidence will spell disaster.

On the other hand Dunbar Township has never defeated the locals and the team will have to come here in a rocky attitude. If the locals get the jump then the visitors may break up. Once D. T. forces ahead, however, their morale will gain strength and the team will be led to beat.

Nevertheless every indication points to one of the largest crowds ever at Fayette Field. The game seems to have a popular interest and many have changed Thanksgiving plans so they could remain at home and witness it.

of the Rotary boys, who are taking care of the transportation and a meal at that place. The college itself has extended the team an invitation to attend the clash as guests of the institution.

AWAITING ANNUAL CLASSIC, DUNBAR TEAM RESTING UP

Looking forward to the annual classic with the Connellsville Cokers on Thanksgiving Day with eager and hopeful eyes, the Dunbar Township griders are taking things easy for a couple of days. With five men on the hospital list, the Red and Black contingent is resting up, while the grid mentor and his assistants are attending the cripples, hoping that they may be able to start in the game.

Not only is the football squad and the high school awaiting the grid day, but the entire populace of the township. Never before in the history of the school has as much enthusiasm been displayed in a grid game. It is probable that the inevitable will be accomplished on the day of the clash. Tradition says that Connellsville must win the trophy from the township squad.

The team will go through light workouts Thursday and Friday, with scrimmaging held for Monday and Tuesday. The mentor is centering his attention on destroying the Cokers' ground game, the forward pass. With the pass out of the way, the Orange and Black will have little chance of defeating the Dunbarites, it is claimed.

Master Mechanics Prove Too Much in Game With Caseys

After dropping the first last evening to the Casey Club, the Master Mechanics rolled away over their opponents in the next two games, taking the match. Mahoney of the Master Mechanics, had high score with 427.

Gridiron Glimpse.
The Cokers should present their strongest line-up against Dunbar Township Thanksgiving, barring accidents Saturday. Willard has about recovered. He will be completely ready by that day and if the big boys gets a chance at some open field running then he may be able to show something.

"Corky" Angle is another casual who will be in uniform for Thanksgiving. He probably could play Saturday if necessary but it is hardly likely he will be used as it might result in losing him for the more important event.

Johnson, the colored end, who was a flush until he got his wrist hurt, is also out again. He reported Monday evening. By Thanksgiving he also will likely be in good shape. That will fortify the Cokers on end, with Stillwagon and Lowe due to go at top speed. The "Speeder" was in there last Friday playing one of the best end games seen this season.

With a backfield composed of Trump, Chorpennig, Angle and Willard to open hostilities against Dunbar Township the visiting aggregation would find itself pitted against something. Then in the tip-top sub line are Vorse, May, Schuler, Muscia, Kull and O'Donnell.

The average age of the High School football squad, taking count of the substitutes, who are of good age, is 17 years and two months. If the average of the team that usually starts the games is taken, it will hardly reach 17 years.

"Pete" Gane, 15-year-old end, shows promise of becoming very valuable. With an underdeveloped amount of courage, lacking only size and weight, the lad always makes his presence felt. Edmunds is another prospect and these two will be looked to next season.

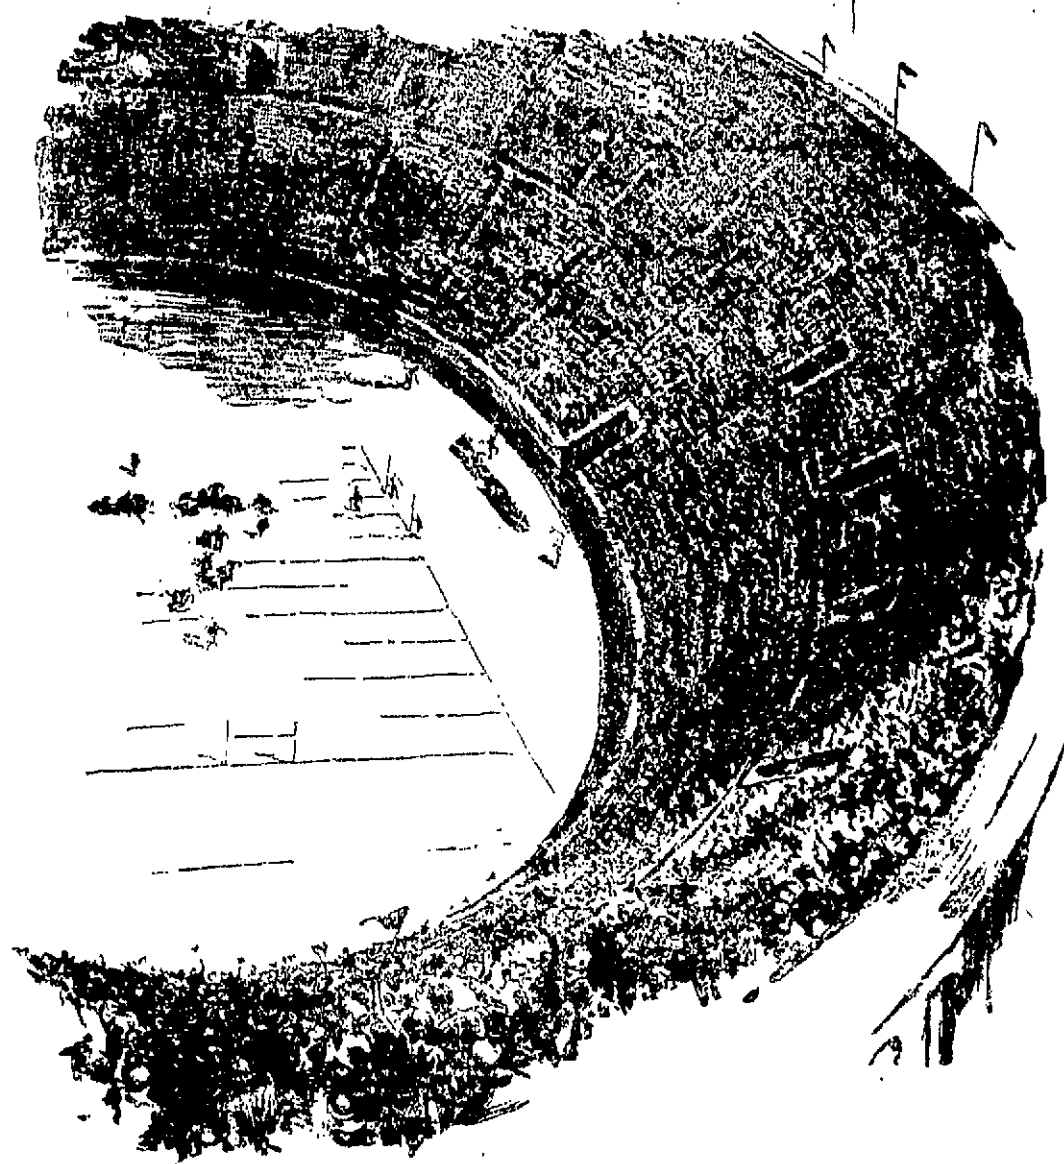

Football has commanded a remarkable interest in this community this season. With a better team next year, and possibly with a more interesting schedule, Connellsville will have something to shout about.

The Rotary boys, who have been responsible for much of the encouragement and support the team has received this year, lay emphasis on the fact that on Thanksgiving the Dunbar Township people are being "introduced" here and should be given the best of treatment. The visitors will be preferred parking places, it is pointed out, and the whole movement is planned to increase the friendliness between the people of the township and the city.

Reports indicate that Dunbar Township feels it will only have to perfect a defense against an aerial game in prevent the Cokers from winning. In the meantime the Orange and Black coaches may change their style of attack altogether and thereby cross up the river grid mentor.

Connellsville undoubtedly has a fair aerial offensive, but no team in history ever relied on this mode of attack only. Before the game would be ended, the rivals would have the formations solved and break them all up.

Today and Tomorrow

The Paramount

"TURMOIL"—A screen version of John Tarkington's novel, provides splendid entertainment today and tomorrow at the Paramount.

The story deals with the turmoil in the home of a self-made millionaire, arrogant, powerful and stubborn, who with iron hand, bends a rebellious family to his will. An artistic son is forced to the unhappiness of a money-mad struggle in business; a daughter-in-law, waspish and fortune-hunting, pits her wits against his, drives one man to drink, another to the grave, his daughter into the arms of a scoundrel, and nearly wrecks the entire family on the altar of Mammon.

The powerful story is acted by a cast carefully chosen for the task. Hubbs, the dreamy, artistic son of the family, is pictured by George Hackathorne, the appealing hunchback of "Merry-Go-Round." While Eileen Percy, of "The Filrt," plays Sybil, the daughter-in-law with the soul of a wasp. Pauline Garon plays the suppers baby daughter of the family, and Emmett Corrigan appears as the old millionaire. Eleanor Boardman plays a role that adds love interest to the picture, and Kitty Brachbury, Victory Bateman, Theodore Von Eltz, Edward Hearn and other well known artists also appear.

The Soisson

"THE GOLDFISH," on view today at the Soisson, is a First National picture with Constance Talmadge in the leading role.

Constance Talmadge puts lots of fun and pep in her new film, "The Goldfish," which Jerome Storm directed for Producer Joseph M. Schenck. In the film Constance has three husbands, and unlike most women she can't get rid of them even when she gets a divorce. There's an intriguing something about this character which just keeps a husband hanging around and where they are current—"has been" or "would-be"—they stick around and offer advice after the manner of perfect husbands. It's really pretty clever to be able to do it. So many men really resent being divorced—for no particular reason except that some one else offers a nicer residence for the pretty wife. "The Goldfish" was adapted by C. Gardner Sullivan from Gladys Unger's stage play, in which Marjory Rainbeau was featured.

Jack Mulhall is Constance's leading man. Others having prominent roles in the cast are Jean Hersholt, Za Su Pitts, Edward Connelly, William Conklin, Nellie Lily Baker, Leo White and Frank Elliott.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday "Habbitt" will be shown.

The Orpheum

"MONSIEUR BEAUCAIRE," the feature picture today at the Orpheum, presents Rudolph Valentino, popular Paramount star, in his best role. In "Monsieur Beaucaire" most of the action of the story takes place at the court of Louis XV of France, and in Bath, England, the favorite resort of English nobility. The nobility depicted in the picture are almost all real characters who had a hand in the making of history. And because we are trying to make this picture as historically correct as possible we found it advisable to portray the more important incidents in the lives of these interesting people so that the different turn of events in the story could be more easily understood. It is in the portrayal of these important incidents that no many people in the cast received bits to play.

The romantic background of this story is the gorgeous court of Louis XV, famous for the standards of etiquette and fashion that is set but famous for its vice and love affairs. Something unusual in the way of costumes and settings may be expected in view of the fact that historical accuracy is a feature of this colorful photoplay.

Featured in support of Valentino in this picture which, by the way, marks his first screen appearance in two years are Bebe Daniels, Lois Wilson, Doris Krayon and Lowell Sherman. Quite a line-up, you'll admit. The supporting cast includes some really big names.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday Buck Jones will be seen in "Agua: All Odds."

NEW POWDER FROM ITALY MAKES RHEUMATIC PAINS GO QUICKLY

No Medicine to Take Internally! A Startling New Method of Treatment.

The well-known Italian physician, Alessandro Volta, for whom the electric volt has been named, has made a scientific discovery that promises to make rheumatic pain a thing of the past for the thousands who have suffered its terrible tortures.

He compounded a powder called Volta that he claimed to be a powerful and active Uric Acid solvent. It is not taken internally, but is absorbed through the pores in the soles of the feet. It is intended to be absorbed almost immediately into the blood, and this is due, no doubt, to the fact that the soles of the feet contain over ten times the number of pores to the square inch as does any other part of the body.

So remarkable and rapid have been the results from the use of Volta, both in this country and in Italy, that the American distributors have authorized local druggists to dispense Volta with an unqualified guarantee of relief from the use of the very best package or your money will be refunded.

If you suffer from Rheumatic pains, Sciatica, Lumbago, Gout or Neuralgia, you owe it to yourself to try this remarkable new scientific treatment. It is absolutely harmless and will not cost you one cent if you do not receive wonderful relief.

You can get a box of Volta, from such good druggists as Connellsville Drug Co., Laughrey Drug Co., C. Roy Hietzel.—Advertisement

If Its In a Can Its Fresh

This slogan of the canning industry tells one of the great advantages of canned foods. It means that from all over the country, and even foreign lands, the many products of the orchards and fields have been taken when at their best quality and flavor and made available in handy form for your table any day in the year. Many of these fruits and vegetables when marketed in an other way have not yet reached their best stage of maturity.

Special machinery takes care of every process of canning from the time the raw product enters until it is packed for shipment. Cooking is done in the can which sterilizes the contents and makes it the safest food that can come to your table.

Our stores specialize in high quality canned fruits, vegetables, and meats. The very best brands known in the canning industry are on our shelves. Whether you buy one can or a dozen cans, you are assured of getting better quality and value than is usual elsewhere.
